IDENTIFY YOUR IDENTITY

What are you going to be #1 in? Get specific to get laser focused. The more you understand where your strengths are, the better you can prepare yourself to build a team who can best support you.

03

TAKE ACTION NOW:

List out 3 things you struggle with in your business.

Are these three items most efficiently handled by you or would it be more beneficial to find someone with that strength to free up your time and talent?

MASTER YOUR MARKET

Consider the identity of your customer and who you WANT to be your customer.

04

TAKE ACTION NOW:

Who are your best customers and worst? Overtime your ideal customer may change. Brainstorm and consciously recognize who your best customer is so you can work towards minimizing those who aren't.

What kind of customer do you want to work with?

Who feels like a blessing to work with vs. who feels like a burden?

MONETIZE YOUR MOMENT

Use your new understanding of your natural flow to improve your workflow and business.

05

TAKE ACTION NOW:

Are there things you are doing in your business now that clearly call upon a skill set that does not compliment your learning or earning style?

Choose one task that you feel does not and brainstorm ways to either delegate it to someone else or outsource it.
